Atelier Collection

The ATELIER collection introduces a textured decoration imitating wood grain, with an irregular and vertical pattern. It stands out for its play of nuances in the same tone, thus giving importance to the incidence of light and the subtle changes of its same color aspect.

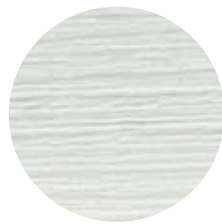

A safe bet for tasteful and sophisticated decoration, colors that fit in with any type of environment and that elevate the category of the room. Made of the best quality finger pine, it is made up of a series of balanced profiles: six more marketable profiles, it has two “eles” profiles for different frame heights.
