Elise Collection

The ELISE Collection presents some original profiles meant for today's interiors. They combine straight modern exterior lines with other curved lines, that give them some classic touch at the same time. The brightest golden and silvered finishes are a good imitation of the fine brushed handcrafted effects.

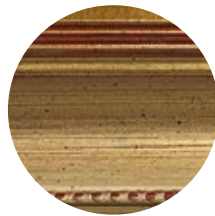

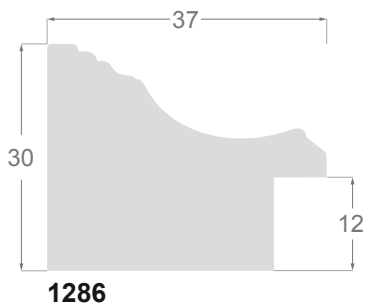

ELISE is made with finger-jointed pine coated with fine gesso layers. Then, through the basis made with colored patinas and films, we get the different shades and the fine stripes in red, black or white, which provide the moulding with a vintage touch, quite appreciated in today's decorations.
